ART SUBMISSION FORM
(Tucson Show)

Form to submit pieces for the Art with Conviction gallery showing:
(Please fill out this form for every piece you would like to submit)

The piece must have a title and be easily identified, meaning the title needs to be on the back/bottom of the piece. In the case of multiple submissions and submission forms, each form must be easily matched to the piece.

Name of Artist:

Name of Piece:

Is the piece for sale? YES NO (circle one)

If yes, what is the price of the piece? (We have access to people who are experienced in appraising artwork. If you do not know how to price the piece, you may indicate that Art with Conviction can set the price. We have every incentive to price the piece so that it sells for as much as possible).¹

How did you create this piece? (What supplies or mediums did you use?)

¹ In the event that there is a sale, Art with Conviction will receive a percentage from the sale price no greater than 30% to offset operating costs. This will include any standard commission that the gallery would be entitled to receive. If the intention is for Art with Conviction to facilitate the sale, Art with Conviction will take possession of the piece in consignment and submission of this form along with the submitted piece will constitute the applicable consignment agreement.

Is there a story behind the inspiration of this piece? If so, please share it with us so that we may share it at the exhibition.

Are there any interesting facts you would like to share about this piece?

What does art mean to the artist? How has art changed or affected the artist's life and/or outlook?

Please share with us information about the artist so that our patrons can know about the person behind the work. (The kind of information we are looking for includes where the artist is from, what does art mean to them, plans for the future, and any other thoughts on their work or things that our patrons should know).

What would you like Art with Conviction to do with this piece after it is displayed?

- a. Return to _____(name of person) who can be reached at _____ [NOTE: If you want us to ship your artwork, you will need to provide postage and the cost for packaging the piece]
- b. Keep it as a donation to Art with Conviction's permanent collection
- c. Facilitate its sale (If so, please send information about how to send payment)
- d. Hold onto it for possible use in future Art with Conviction events

Please return this form along with your submission to
